To the Honorable William M. Conley Chancellor of the Western District Court for the District of Wisconsin

Michaelene Jo Formanack (Nee Florian), residing in the County of Pierce, in the village of Elmwood, of the Commonwealth of Wisconsin, complainant.

vs.

Rosie Rios, Treasurer of the United States

BILL IN EQUITY

The complainant respectfully shows to the Court:

I

On   1955 complainant was born to Jerome George Florian and Patricia Anne Pape. On   1955 my live birth certificate was registered with the State of Wisconsin and I was wedded with the defacto corporate name MICHAELENE J. FLORIAN. At that time I became surety for the State of Wisconsin. Fraud was committed in the withholding of information that my parents would have used to determine if they wanted me, their daughter, to become surety for a defacto name. Fraud was committed when no one explained to my parents that that defacto name was saddled with taxes of every sort and a loss of liberty because I wouldn't be able to exercise my constitutional rights, secured by the Constitution. Fraud was committed when the bottom half of the birth certificate was not left on. Fraud made me a bastard child therefore a ward of the state. "Equity will not suffer a wrong to be without a remedy" "Equity will not allow a statute to be used as a cloak for fraud." Exhibit 1

II

Complainant got her social security card somewhere before her first employment. That number was asked for on every employment application, opening bank accounts, on my application for my passport. Fraud was committed when it was not disclosed to complainant that the social security number was actually the number of a bond insured by a German social insurance company. It was fraud when the literature appeared to say that this number was something special and to keep it in a safe place. It was never explained that you wouldn't be able to get a bank account without a social security number, or get a credit card without one or even have a medical account without one. "Equity will not suffer a wrong to be without a remedy" "Equity will not allow a statute to be used as a cloak for fraud." Exhibit 2

III

Complainant's husband Bennett Charles Formanack was born to Robert Joseph Formanack and Darleen Anna Wagner on 1959. On June 2, 1959 he was wedded with the defacto name BENNETT C. FORMANACK. At that time he became surety for the State of Minnesota. As stated in complaint number I, fraud was committed for the very same reasons stated. "Equity will not suffer a wrong to be without a remedy" "Equity will not allow a statute to be used as a cloak for fraud." Exhibit 3

IV

Complainant's husband got his social security card somewhere before his first application for employment. That number was asked for on every employment application, opening bank accounts, and on his application for his passport. As stated above in complaint number II, fraud was committed for the very same reasons stated. "Equity will not suffer a wrong to be without a remedy" "Equity will not allow a statute to be used as a cloak for fraud." Exhibit 4

V

Complainant's parents Jerome George Florian and Patricia Anne Tschirki are deceased and complainant does not have access to the trusts created upon their birth. Complainant's father was a private in the army and associated with that was an account with a trust. Complainant does not have access to that trust. "Equity sees that as done what ought to be done." Exhibit 5

The complainant has no sufficient remedies at law.

WHEREFORE, your complainant, being without remedy save in a court of equity where such matters are properly cognizable prays:

1st May it please your Honor to make a decree that would release the complainant and her family from being trustees and sureties to our defacto corporate names. That we would own those names and become the beneficiaries of them. The names are listed in the 2nd prayer of relief. "Equity will not suffer a wrong to be without a remedy" "Equity sees that as done what ought to be done."

9th That your Honor, would appoint a trustee of our Private Business Trust RE046045785US, Special Deposit number BCF-01-1, at the River Falls State Bank which includes our account and debit cards The President and CEO Daniel J Davison, declined trusteeship but kept all our private papers including title which created the Trust. "Equity will not allow a trust to fail for want of a trustee."
